4.1. Our Vision

Our vision is to help expand the kingdom of Jesus Christ on earth by creating Bible-based, contemporary Churches and Spiritual Institutions (Acts 1:8)

4.2. Our Mission

Our Mission is to exalt Jesus Christ in all that we think, say and do, and to extend his influence throughout the world by:

- 4.2.1 Proclaiming Christ’s Gospel with the expectation that supernatural signs will follow as the normal New Testament pattern (Mark 16:15-20).
- 4.2.2 Planting Christ-centred churches and Spiritual Institutions that are autonomous, interdependent and self-propagating (Acts 14:21-28)
- 4.2.3 Promoting Christ-glorifying Christian communities which outwork the miraculous and character transforming ministry of the Holy Spirit (Acts 2:42-47) and who also contribute to caring for people in genuine need, and in community development.
- 4.2.4 Producing Christ-following disciples who seek to obey the Great Commission (Matthew 22:36-40; 28:18-20).
- 4.2.5 To establish other self-governing, self-propagating local churches according to the New Testament pattern, as the opportunity affords inclusive of any other campuses of the church.
- 4.2.6 To uphold the Biblical concept of the family as the basic unit of society.
- 4.2.7 To provide Christian Education for all age groups, and to encourage training for active ministry at home and abroad.
- 4.2.8 To release the Divinely bestowed Ministry Gifts of Christ into full operation within the church and the body of Christ.
- 4.2.9 To support and engage in Missionary enterprise in other nations with a view of establishing indigenous local churches.
- 4.2.10 To encourage an attitude of Christian Fellowship toward all believers in Christ, irrespective of doctrinal or denominational differences.
- 4.2.11 To honour all civil governing authorities according to the Scriptures, as a non-political organisation.
- 4.2.12 To provide vocational training and skills development: Equip individuals with practical skills and knowledge for employment and entrepreneurial opportunities, contributing to personal and community development.
- 4.2.13 To establish welfare and support programs: Offer food, clothing, shelter, and counselling services to individuals and families in need, following the biblical mandate of compassion and care when possible. (Matthew 25:35-40).
- 4.2.14 To promote leadership development: Foster the growth of Christian leaders through mentoring, training, and educational programs, preparing them for roles in ministry and community leadership.
- 4.2.15 To encourage and support the establishment of scholarships, learning programs, and partnerships with Christian educational institutions for academic and spiritual growth.
- 4.2.16 To engage in health and wellness initiatives, physical, emotional, and mental well-being through health education, medical outreach, and spiritual care (3 John 1:2).

- 4.2.17 To advocate for social justice and ethical practices and promote awareness and action on issues of justice, equality, and ethical behaviour in alignment with biblical principles (Micah 6:8).
 - 4.2.18 To develop Christ-centred support groups and recovery programs for those struggling with addictions, focusing on transformation through the Holy Spirit.
 - 4.2.19 To support children and youth programs, offering education, mentoring, and discipleship to nurture future generations of believers.
 - 4.2.20 To create community outreach initiatives, building bridges between the church and the community through events, services, and programs.
 - 4.2.21 To promote environmental stewardship and care of God's creation through education and sustainable practices (Genesis 2:15).
 - 4.2.22 To foster cultural diversity and inclusion by promoting unity within the body of Christ as one family (Galatians 3:28).
 - 4.2.23 To provide marriage and family support, focusing on Christ-centred marriages and families through workshops, seminars, and one-on-one counselling (Ephesians 5:22-33).

4.3. Declaration of Faith

- 4.3.1. The CRC believes in and presents the following basic truths:
- 4.3.2. The Bible is the inspired Word of God;
 - 4.3.2.1. The true and living God is the creator of heaven and earth, who has revealed Himself in the persons of the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit;
 - 4.3.2.2. In the Divinity and sinless Humanity of Jesus Christ, and in His miraculous ministry, His suffering and death on the cross as the only saviour for the sins of the world, and His resurrection from the dead;
 - 4.3.2.3. That Jesus will return to the earth as its final judge of the living and the dead;
 - 4.3.2.4. That all people fall short of God's perfect standard and can only find forgiveness through faith in the saving work of Jesus Christ;
 - 4.3.2.5. That all people who have put their faith in Jesus Christ will witness transformation in their lives, exemplified by repentance and holiness of conduct;
 - 4.3.2.6. In Christian Baptism, by full immersion in water, of those who have personally placed their faith in Jesus Christ;
 - 4.3.2.7. In regularly celebrating the Lord's Supper, remembering Jesus Christ's saving work;
 - 4.3.2.8. In the Baptism in the Holy Spirit, with the normal initial evidence of speaking in unknown languages;
 - 4.3.2.9. In the miraculous gifts of the Holy Spirit;
 - 4.3.2.10. That God heals the sick today through active faith in His grace;
 - 4.3.2.11. In the power of prayer;
 - 4.3.2.12. In God's community of believers, the church, and its responsibility to spread the message of the Gospel to all people and nations.

4.4. The Council

- 4.4.1. The Council is all the CRC Affiliated Pastors of the CRC.
- 4.4.2. The Council accepts the Vision, Mission, Values, Ministry Focus, Ethics and Beliefs set down in the Charter.
- 4.4.3. 5.5. Marriage, divorce and remarriage

- 5.5.1. The Biblical Model of marriage is a life-long, monogamous legally performed marriage between a man and a woman, in which there is constant love, continual care, mutual respect, Godly order, submission and sexual intimacy. In such a context, children may be born and raised in an atmosphere of loving care, godly training and discipline.
- 5.5.2. Any forms of sexual activity outside of marriage is deemed unacceptable and consequently, no recognition for any area of CRC ministry and its local Church leadership or ministry can be given to such persons who continue in, or disregard as acceptable, such practices.
- 5.5.3. Divorce, where an applicant has been divorced, the Executive will carefully consider the principles outlined in the current "Guidelines on Divorce and Remarriage"

5.6. Disputes between Credentialed Pastors.

Ideally all disputes should be resolved on the basis of the following Scriptures:

- Matthew 18:15-20; 5:23-26
- Galatians 6:1-5

If this fails, then the matter shall be referred to the Executive whose decision shall be final.

5.7. Movement of Ministers

When an Affiliated CRC Pastor proposes to re-establish themselves in a new location, then such a move shall be made in conjunction with:

- The Executive and;
- The Oversight of each CRC Church or Spiritual Institution which may be affected.

5.8. Suspension or Forfeiture of Credential

- 5.8.1. The Executive shall have the power to suspend any Pastor Credential and requires immediate relinquishment of the person's leadership duties in a CRC Church and any CRC Spiritual Institution, pending an investigation and judgement by the Executive.
- 5.8.2. The Executive may take action when they determine that a suspension is appropriate, given the circumstances of the case, notwithstanding that the person concerned may not at that time have had sufficient opportunity to respond to the allegations.
- 5.8.3. In the event of a Pastor of CRC having their Credential suspended, they shall:
 - 5.8.3.1. be required to surrender their CRC Credential immediately;
 - 5.8.3.2. be required to resign from the leadership of any CRC Church or CRC Spiritual Institution immediately;

- 6.8.2.6. The name "CRC" cannot be used by an Allied Outreach work until such time as the Executive has granted it official recognition as an Affiliated Outreach of the CRC, unless it is operating as an outreach of an existing CRC Church or CRC Spiritual Institution, and is led by a CRC Minister.

6.9. Termination of Church or Spiritual Institution Affiliation

- 6.9.1. The Executive shall have the right to terminate the affiliation of any Church or Spiritual Institution if such Church or Spiritual Institution is considered to have violated the Charter or this Constitution.
- 6.9.2. When the Executive proposes to consider terminating the Affiliation of any Church or Spiritual Institution, the following procedure shall be followed:
 - 6.9.2.1. The Executive shall give the Church or Spiritual Institution thirty (30) days' notice in writing of the proposal to consider terminating its affiliation with CRC, and such written notice shall provide general particulars of allegations concerning the Church or Spiritual Institution.
 - 6.9.2.2. The Church or Spiritual Institution shall have the right to make written submissions responding to the concerns, which written submissions must be received before the expiration of the thirty (30) days 'notice.
 - 6.9.2.3. The Executive shall, in consideration of the written response, make available a meeting with the Executive, and the Executive may call upon the Global Liaison for assistance with making a determination.
 - 6.9.2.4. The decision of the Executive shall be recorded in writing and a copy thereof provided to the Church or Spiritual Institution concerned.
- 6.9.3. On such termination,
 - 6.9.3.1. all rights and privileges of affiliation shall immediately cease, including the right to use the names "CRC".
 - 6.9.3.2. any chattels that were owned or purchased for the use of a CRC Church or CRC Spiritual Institution shall within seven (7) days be made available to CRC to be administered by Executive for the use of a future Church or Spiritual Institution;
 - 6.9.3.3. any property or chattels purchased in the name of the Church or Spiritual Institution remains exclusively the property of the CRC and to administrated by the Executive on behalf of the Church or Spiritual Institution;
 - 6.9.3.4. any financial or in-kind contribution of personal funds, property, buildings, equipment, intellectual property, made by an individual for the use of the Church or Spiritual Institution cannot be claimed and remains the property of CRC to be administered by the Executive for the use of a future Church or Spiritual Institution;
 - 6.9.3.5. the Executive has the right to establish a new or future Church or Spiritual Institution at or near to the area of the terminated Church or Spiritual Institution to fulfil the Great Commission using all or part of the residual funds, property, buildings, equipment, intellectual property as it sees fit.

6.10. Rules and Regulations

Each Affiliated Church or Spiritual Institution has authority and power to make Rules and Regulations to administer its local affairs, provided they are not contrary to this Constitution or the Charter.

6.11. Disputes between Churches and Spiritual Institutions

- 6.11.1. Disputes between Affiliated Churches or Spiritual Institutions shall be settled, if possible, between the Churches and or the Spiritual Institutions concerned. If this fails, then an impartial mediator acceptable to both parties may be called upon to help resolve the dispute. In the absence of agreement over the choice of a mediator, the Executive shall appoint a mediator.

- 6.11.2. If the Church or Spiritual Institution deliberations fail to resolve the dispute by mediation, then the matter shall be discussed with the Executive or its representatives.
- 6.11.3. The decision of the Executive shall be recorded in writing and a copy thereof provided to the Church or Spiritual Institution concerned and if need to the Global Liaison.

6.12. Disputes between a Church and a Spiritual Institution and the Executive

- 6.12.1. Disputes between an Affiliated Church or Spiritual Institution and the Executive shall be settled, if possible, between the parties concerned. If this fails, then an impartial mediator acceptable to both parties may be called upon to help resolve the dispute.
- 6.12.2. In the absence of agreement over the choice of a mediator, the Executive shall request the assistance of the Global Liaison for help.
- 6.12.3. If still no agreement is found, then the Executive will seek advice from the CRC Missions International to make a final ruling.

6.13. Withdrawal from Affiliation

- 6.13.1. Any Church or Spiritual Institution Affiliated with the CRC may withdraw from the CRC provided that the following requirements are met:
